

'Success for Everyone'

Ofsted newsletter

February 2024

It is with immense pride that we can confirm our school, Education My Life Matters (EMLM) meets all of the Independent School Standards!

Our Ofsted inspection took place on 25th January 2024 and our final report has been shared with you all, it is also published on our website and is available on the official Ofsted Report website.

Part 3: Welfare, Health and Safety of Pupils

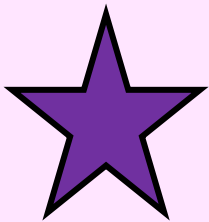

"Policies and the arrangements to assess risks and maintain the premises to be as safe as possible..."

Standard met!

Part 1: Quality of Education provided

'New curriculum plans in all subjects, investment in a range of suitable resources and high-quality training for staff are together ensuring that there is now suitable breadth and depth in all subjects.'

Standard met!

Part 8: Quality of Leadership & Management

"Inspection found there have been significant improvements to the quality of the school's leadership and management. As well as resolving concerns about the curriculum and premises, leaders are now demonstrating a clear working knowledge of the independent school standards and are working diligently to ensure that these are all met consistently. There is now capacity for further improvement."

Standard met!

Part 5: Premises

Courtyard with bench and plants and space to play basketball. Partnership with leisure centre and boxing club.

Standard met!

"Staff are together ensuring that there is now suitable breadth and depth in all subjects."

Part 2: Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural development of pupils (SMSC)

Part 4: Suitability of staff, supply staff and proprietors

Part 6: Provision of Information

Part 7: Manner in which complaints are handled

Standards continue to be met!

The inspector toured the school, talked to pupils and considered evidence relating to the curriculum and the premises.